Laguna Salada Pilot Program

Diverting Pacifica Pupils from Trouble

By TERRY DAVENPORT

Students headed for trouble in high school are being given special attention under a $17,000, six-month pilot program that the Laguna Salada Union School District began today in Cabrillo and Sharp Park schools.

Enrolled in two "Opportunity Classes," seventh-and eighth-graders are receiving individualized instruction and counseling that isn't possible in regular classes.

The program emphasizes returning students to their usual classes as soon as possible.

Roy Carver, director of pupil personnel services, stressed that Opportunity Classes accept only students who can expect to benefit from them.

"This is not a delinquency intervention program by any means," Carver said.

Students admitted to Opportunity Classes are those who demonstrate limited academic and/or emotional development. They must have one more important characteristic - a desire to succeed.

In a recent survey, Laguna Salada teachers recommended 60 seventh and eighth-graders whom they felt meet those criteria.

Carver said the kind of student who is suspended regularly is not a likely candidate for an Opportunity Class.

"There must be some area where we can build a positive or constructive relationship," he remarked.

Nor will pupils with severe learning problems be admitted to Opportunity Classes. Carver said they will be channeled into special education classes.

That leaves the Opportunity Classes with a select group of youths who, for the most part, need help in a particular academic area or in getting along with others.

Often, a student has both needs.

"We know most children who have behavior problems also have learning problems," Carver explained.

Regardless of the reasons a pupil enters an Opportunity Class, he will be given intensive help in both areas. During the morning, students will be taught in groups of no more than 12 in basic academic subjects. The regular student-teacher ratio is 30:1.

Carver said the two teachers in the program, Wan-

D.C. to Hold Down Garbage Rate

By NANCY STANCILL

In an unexpected move, Daly City's City Council Monday slashed $100,000 from the Daly City Scavenger Co. franchise fee payments to hold down a garbage rate increase to 18.8 percent, rather than the 27 percent hike the scavenger company had requested.

The council's action will mean a 65-cent monthly garbage rate increase for the Daly City homeonwer. The rate, presently at $3.45 per month for single-can residential service, will go to $4.10 with the closing of the Mussel Rock dump Wednesday.

Commercial and apartment garbage rates also will go up 18.8 percent.

The council's unanimous action will cover the six-month period the scavenger company will be using the San Fracniso transfer station for handling garbage disposal.

With the completion of Mussel Rock transfer station, the council said it will consider further adjustment in scavenger company rates. The transfer station will be used for compacting garbage for long-distance haul to Ox Mountain dump near Half Moon Bay.

The council's action will require that the scavenger company pay only $41,000 in franchise fees, rather than the $41,000 yearly franchise fees recommended by City Manager David Rowe.

Rowe's recommendation was based on reducing the franchise fee from its present 8.3 percent of the company's gross receipts to 6.8 percent.

However, even with the percentage reduction, the residential garbage rates would have jumped 25 percent to $4.31 per month.

Rowe also had recommended that the scavenger company be allowed to make $35,000 in profit. The council's action will reduce that figure to $30,000.

The council's reduction of the franchise fee came after several residents termed the franchise fee an indirect form of taxation of residents by the city.

William Wade of the Westlake Homeowners Association said, "The $140,000 franchise fee is a hidden form of taxation. Let's get it out in the open. If you take out

School Closures

Parent Views Asked by LSSD

Parents of children in the Laguna Salada Union School District are urged to express their views on possible school closure Thursday at 8 p.m. at Vallemar School, Reina del Mar and Reichling Avenue in Pacifica.

The board of trustees has designated that meeting as the last opportunity for public comment before making its final decision March 2.

Declining enrollment in the district seems certain to convince the board to close some schools, following a pattern seen throughout the county. Compared to 8,362 students registered in 1972, and 5,252 enrolled this year, Superintendent James Brien predicts there will be only 4,051 pupils in 1981.

The only trustee to announce a stand on closing schools is John Plato, who favors shutting four schools. However, he and the other trustees have not named specific schools they wish to close.

Brien has recommended closing Pedro Valley and Vallemar Schools in 1978 and Crespi, Portola and Westview schools in 1979, or as soon as possible.

Brien is expected to offer other proposals Feb. 16.

The public also will be invited to comment at the meeting on a proposed teachers' contract for 1978-79 which the Laguna Salada Educational Association recently presented to the board.

1 Dead On D.C. Highway

A man was killed Monday night when the car in which he was riding went out of control on Interstate 280 in Daly City.

The victim was tentatively identified as Robert Richard, 47, of 518 Clearview in Los Gatos.

Richard's wife Lynne, 28, was seriously injured in the accident. She was reported to be in guarded condition this morning in the intensive care unit at Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City.

According to the California Highway Patrol, Mrs. Richard was driving south on 280 when the car spun and struck a guard rail. Both occupants were thrown out of the auto. Richard apparently died instantly. His wife was run over by another car.

The accident occurred at about 9:20 p.m. near the 280 intersection with Eastmoor.

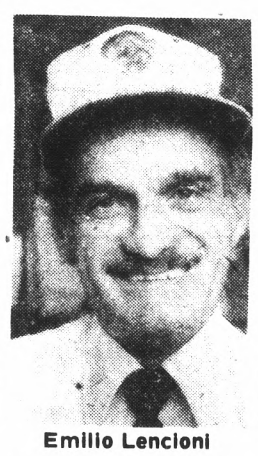

Driver Finds Body

The body of a 23-year-old San Bruno man was found by a San Mateo County Transit District bus driver at about 8 a.m. Monday just off Crystal Springs Road near Cunningham Way, according to San Bruno police.

The body was identified as that of Brad P. Guadagnin, 821 Parkview Drive, who police said may have been involved in a car theft on Sharp Park Road in Pacifica earlier.

Colma Election Lineup

Eugene Daneluz

Colma's Mayor Eugene E. Daneluz said he believes the town of 500 faces a "changing time."

"We're no longer a little cemetery town," he said. "The cemeteries have lost revenues."

HE SAID the town should begin to think of providing more services to its residents.

Daneluz, a 46-year-old teamster, resides at 484 D St. He was born in San Francisco and moved to Colma in 1961.

A member of the Town Council for four years, Daneluz was named mayor in March, 1977.

He noted that since he has been mayor he has set up a beautification committee to brighten up the roadway areas with plants and flowers.

DANELUZ also said he is interested in development of a town park.

"We have a $10,000 grant from San Mateo County," he said. "Now we have to obtain a piece of land."

Other services Daneluz said he is interested in instituting are programs for senior citizens and youth, perhaps through

Emilio H. (Ray) Lencioni said he thinks Colma's biggest problem lies with itsCity Council.

"The conflicts between the personalities on Colma'scouncil are interfering with the town's business," Lencioni charged.

"IT'S ALWAYS one going against the other," the candidate for the Colma council continued.

Lencioni, the sole challenger to the two incumbents up for election in Colma March 7, thinks he can solve the problem by making council decisions based strictly on their merits.

"I'm ayes or no man," Lencioni said. "If I like something I say so. I thinkI can work to take care of the people in the town."

LENCIONI, 52, is a foreman witn a florist and box company in the Colma area. He resides at 450 Clark Ave.

Lencioni has resided in Coma for eight years, but said his familiarity with the town of 500 goes back to his childhood. He used to spend summers with his

Raymond Ottoboni Sr., figures that if he's elected to the Colma Town Council for four more years he will have garnered a state record.

Ottoboni will have served for 32 years if he is re-elected. He's already been a councilman for 28 years, longer than any other councilman member in San Mateo County.

BUT OTTOBONI, 72, said he has more pressing reasons for seeking re-election than attempting to set a state record. He said his life has been bound up in the fortunes of the tiny town of 500.

Ottoboni, a retired nurseryman, is a Colma native. He resides at 435 F St. He said his father gave shelter in flower barns to 250 fleeing San Francisco residents in the aftermath of the 1906 earthquake.

Ottoboni's long career was marred 17 months ago by a misdemeanor voting fraud charge. He pleaded "no contest" to the charge and was sentenced to two years summary probation, 50 hours of public service work and a $625 fine. The

D.C. to Fund Care Centers

The City Council decided Monday that it couldn't fund one Daly City day-care operation without giving aid to another, so it earmarked federal Manpower monies for both the Daly City Community for Children's Services and the Bayshore Baptist Church.

The council's decision to give the DCCCS $10,878 for three CETA positions was somewhat of a surprise.

City Council members earlier had said the $160,000 in federal funds the city has given the DCCCS in two years was enough.

But the council Monday rejected an allocation of CETA funds that would have given $11,662 to the Bayshore Baptist Church's planned day-care center and left DCCCS with nothing. That was City Manager David Rowe's recommendation.

"I would rather go for the alternate recommendation, which includes funding for both centers," Councilman Tony Giammona said.

Councilman William Schumacher agreed that funding of both centers would be "the most fair" arrangement.

Mayor Albert Teglia, however, said he had reservations about the DCCCS operations, particularly the fact that its board of directors includes two husband-and-wife members.

The DCCCS received much criticism last summer after a program review of its workings by the city and San Mateo County charged a deficiency in parent participation and other problems.

Teglia reminded council members of earlier misgivings concerning day-care support as a city function.

After questioning the center's acting administrator, San Francisco consultant Ed Warren, the council approved the allocation.

The council also authorized the city staff to talk with Warren about possible future use of the city's building at 101 Peoria St. as a satellite center.

However, it agreed with City Attorney Albert Polonsky's opinion that the center has no prior claim on the space, because the DCCCS has not used the Peoria Street building previously.

In allocating the city's last $90,000 in CETA funding through September, the council reduced the requested $38,542 from the Jefferson Elementary School District to an allocation of $4,283.

Assistant City Manager Ray Letsinger pointed out that 25 CETA positions already have been funded for JESD.

Other CETA funds approved by the council included $2,779 to the Daly City Senior Citizens Nutrition Program; $5,831 to the city Department of Community Development; $3,640 to the Guadalupe Health Center; $36,414 to the Jefferson Union High School District; and $14,412 to the Daly City Community Multi-purpose and Educational Service Center.

However, the council said it would not fill the CETA positions in the Multi-purpose Center, a youth jobs organization, until some minor problems with its board membership are resolved in writing.

In other business, the council:

- Decided to proceed with an annexation request from the Mobil Station at Junipero Serra Boulevard. Don Bevilacqua, franchise operator, said he desired to become part of the city for improved services. The city will request action from San Mateo County's Local Agency Formation Commission.
- Noted that Mayor Teglia will meet with Jack-in-the-Box restaurant operators to resolve the noise and litter complaints from

Back-to-Basics Signups in Pacifica

Registration for the Back-to-Basics academic program in the Laguna Salada Union School District will be tonight at 7, at Vallemar School, Reina del Mar and Reichling Avenue, Pacifica.

The Back-to-Basics program emphasizes the traditional subjects of reading, writing and arithmetic as well as self-discipline and responsibility.

Students in the highly structured program will be taught in classes of only one grade each. They will be expected to observe a strict dress code and will be evaluated with letter grades and frequent progress reports.

Registration will be held on a first-come, first-served basis.

Parents are asked to sign up without knowing the exact location of the classes. A school or schools will be assigned for children in the program soon after the district knows the number of participants.

Daly City's Mission Merchants will sponsor a candidates' luncheon at noon Feb. 23 at the House of Parties, 22 Hillcrest Drive, Daly City.

Zach Zacharias, president of the Mission Merchants Association, said Daly City's seven candidates for election to City Council March 7 have been invited to speak.

Two candidates' events this week will include a candidates' luncheon sponsored by the Greater Daly City Chamber of Commerce, Thursday at noon. The event, to be held at the House of Parties, will feature both Daly City and Colma candidates.

The other Daly City candidates' appearance, sponsored by the Daly City Democratic Club, will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. The forum will be held at the Jefferson Elementary School District offices, 101 Lincoln, Daly City.

$100,000, we carefully calculate that a 15 percent increase is enough."

Conrad Pavellas of the Original Daly City Protective Association said he wished "to echo the sentiments" expressed by Wade.

Councilman Victor Kyriakis suggested doing away with the franchise fee for the interim period in its entirety, but Councilman Tony Giammona said he believed $41,000 should be left in to cover city expenses.

"There is a limit to taxation," Kyriakis said. "The message I've been getting from taxpayers is to spend less."

Kyriakis added that the "outpouring of public sentiment" against taxation expressed by he Jarvis-Gann initiative supporters has caused him to look more closely at the franchise fee.

However, Councilman McRobert Stewart pointed out that reducing franchise fees that have been earmarked for use in the city's general fund may cause problems.

"Walk softly, gentlemen," he cautioned.

Mayor Albert Teglia asked Rowe whether the $100,000 has been encumbered in specific city programs.

Rowe said that without the $100,000, the present tax rate would have been 5 cents higher. He suggested the council consider amending city programs.

The city manager earlier told the council that the evaluation of the scavenger company's additional dump closing-generated expenses showed that the company needed $389,000 in additional revenues to break even before taxes.

Scavenger company accountant Richard T. Dwyer said, "If we could keep on dumping where we're at, we wouldn't be here. This request is not of the instigation of the Daly City Scavenger Co."

The dump has been ordered closed Wednesday by the Regional Water Control Board because of the possible threat of ocean pollution.

The scavenger company's critics hammered away at the $38,000 to $39,000 salaries drawn by the six partners of the scavenger company.

Harold Calder of the Crocker Neighborhood Association said residents "have expressed repeated concerns over the excessive salaries and profits of the Daly city Scavenger Co."

Calder said that the company generated $253,000 in profits before taxes in 1977.

"We've been overcharged in the past and it's about time we get some money back," Calder said, expressing the opinion that no increase was warranted.

Calder also stressed that the council should appoint a committee to study and recommend on future rate increases.

"Vast, great increases have gone through in the past," he said. "If this keeps up, the possibility of council recall is very strong."

Resident George Kirchubel said the scavenger company exemplified "bad investments, bad management and bad everything."

Charles Slutzkin, representing Westlake Apartments, said he believed apartments should not have to pay a higher dollar amount of increase than single-family residences.

Wade reminded the council that if the projected rate increase went through at $4.31, "It would put Daly City as the third highest in San Mateo County in garbage rates.

"I think we should put the Daly City Scavenger Co. in a break-even position," he said of the interim contracting period.

Rowe replied, however, that the scavenger company should be allowed a "reasonable" profit.

Firm Likely to Drop Contract

The head of the Daly City accounting firm that has audited Daly City's finances for 14 years says he probably won't seek the contract again this year.

"I haven't made up my mind yet, but I don't think I will," Richard T. Dwyer of the Richard T. Dwyer Co. said.

Daly City's City Manager David Rowe recommended to City Council last week that the city seek competitive proposals on the audit, rather than hiring the firm that has served the city so long.

The council is expected to accept the recommendation, since the use of Dwyer's firm has raised continuing criticism from critics of the Daly City Scavenger Co. The Dwyer firm has been the scavenger company's accountant for about 20 years.

Critics have contended that there should be more distance between the city and its franchise garbage company.

Dwyer said he is tired of the constant criticism directed toward the accounting firm for serving both entities.

The firm was paid $16,414 for the 1977 city audit just completed.

Dimond Water District Hangs On

Dimond Public Utility District, an independent water district serving the Bayshore area of Daly City, intends to keep that independence — despite the city's claim that residents may be paying more for potentially inadequate fire protection.

"I feel strongly about giving our users the most for the money, instead of having it spread all over Daly City," said McMalone Counts, a member of the Dimond District Board of Directors.

Counts said Dimond's rates, which climbed past the charges paid by most Daly City residents last May, will go down when San Francisco's rates go down.

Dimond raised its charge of 45 cents per 100 cubic feet of water to 67 cents per 100 with the start of San Francisco water rationing.

The district has a $3 bi-monthly minimum charge which is added to the cost of each 100 cubic feet used. Before rationing, a residence using 800 cubic feet would be charged $6.60 bi-monthly.

Now, a residence using that same amount would pay $8.36, in comparison with the regular $7 charge by Daly City to residents, except those residing in the Bayshore and Serramonte areas. Daly City did not raise rates during rationing.

The 800 cubic feet bi-monthly minimum in the comparatively new Serramonte area of the city costs residents there $9 because of the increased costs of reservoirs and the use of San Francisco water.

However, Daly City City Manager David Rowe said he is more concerned that Bayshore residents might be getting short-changed in fire protection than with a short-term increase in rates.

Rowe said the city periodically has checked the fire hydrants in the Bayshore area for flow and found some of them inadequate.

The city attempted to take over the water service in the Bayshore area in a special 1973 election to merge the Dimond District with Daly City. The city lost the election when the residents voted 2-1 against the merger proposal.

The Dimond District existed when Daly City annexed the 2,000-population area in 1963. The city held talks with Dimond directors for 10 years, but the district held firm in its intent to keep its independent status, Rowe noted.

San Mateo County's Local Agency Formation Commission in 1976 placed the district in Daly City's sphere of influence, an action that denotes LAFCO's decision that merger eventually should occur.

Rowe said he has no plans to initiate another merger vote because he has not had an indication that residents have changed their minds since the 1973 vote.

Fire Chief H. Keith Schrock said the existence of some two- and four-inch meters "does not enhance fire protection in the Bayshore area, particularly in the elevated sections."

He also said the area needs a storage reservoir, to make sure that it has a large supply of fire-fighting water readily available.

"We have yet to lose a building over there, but there's always a chance," Schrock said.

Schrock said the city last notified the Dimond District of its findings in 1976 but never received a reply from district officials.

Counts acknowledged that "Daly City has indiscriminately taken some water flows, but they fluctuate from time to time and they are not necessarily conclusive from one day to another."

Counts said the district maintenance employee has obtained differing flow measurements from tests.

He said he is satisfied the water pressure is adequate for firefighting.

The district's other director, Chester O. Spratlin, said of Daly City's tests, "We found out that they were mistaken when we went to take our own tests a while back."

Spratlin also added the disttrict "has plenty of fire hydrants and all the water we want from San Francisco."

Spratlin said he would oppose merging with Daly City because "they charge too much for standby time. You have to pay for the meter whether you're using it or not."

Daly City's minimum charge is $7, which includes the first 800 cubic feet of water used. Spratlin pointed out that Dimond's minimum charge is $3, which includes a bi-monthly connection but no water.

He said Bayshore residents who use less than the 800 cubic feet could pay less than Daly City residents, even under Dimond's water rationing rates.

"We're an organization here and we're keeping it in our community," Spratlin said.

Rowe estimated it would cost $77,000 presently to bring Dimond's 680 customers into the city system.

He said an eight-inch water main would have to be installed from a Daly City reservoir to connect the water systems. In addition, regulators would have to be placed between some Dimond pressure zones.

Both Spratlin and Counts dismiss the city's warning of potential firefighting inadequacies with some criticism.

"Daly City has constantly tried every trick in the book to dissolve us," Counts concluded.

Field for County Posts Big, Growing

San Mateo County voters this year will pick among the largest field of contestants for county posts in recent history.

Elective positions occupied for years, and frequently unchallenged at the polls, are being vacated by retirements.

And a challenge to Sheriff John R. McDonald Jr. is promised.

County Supervisors Edward J. Bacciocco and John M. Ward face opposition too.

Contests could expand as a filing period for county offices began Tuesday. The deadline is March 10.

Jack Estes, who has been assessor for 11 years, and Edward J. McGuire Jr., county controller for 12 years, are retiring at the end of the year. Neither has faced opposition during his career.

Superior Court Judges W. Howard Hartley and James T. O'Keefe are retiring too. Hartley retires Feb. 28, and O'Keefe at the end of the year.

A race already is shaping up for assessor.

Estes' assistants, Tom Collins and Ronald Giannini, and Lucille Sanders, a former county appraiser, have each announced their intention to seek the assessor's post.

William Bergman, McGuire's assistant for years, has said he will seek his boss's job.

Lois Scampini and Carlos Tinsley, both attorneys in Redwood City, are vying for Judge Hartley's seat. Because Hartley is retiring before the end of his term, there is uncertainty as to whether his term would expire Jan. 3, 1979, if Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. appoints a successor.

Municipal Court Judge Thomas McGinn Smith, court commissioner Allan J. Bollhoffer and Attorney Nick L. M. Elchinoff of South San Francisco are vying for Judge O'Keefe's seat.

The filing deadline for judges expired last week.

Sheriff McDonald, seeking his second four-year term, faces opposition for Warren H. Maloney, a business security consultant from San Carlos. Others may file.

Redwood City Mayor Marguerite Leipzig has said she will challenge Bacciocco, and former Brisbane city attorney David Friedenberg said he is considering running against Ward.

Other county terms expiring include those of District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson, Coroner Paul B. Jensen, County Clerk-Recorder Marvin Church, and County Treasurer Ross Conti.

There have been no declared candidates for those posts yet.

Man Wants Noisy Clown to Shut Up

A Garibaldi Street resident told the Daly City Council last week that he's been tormented beyond toleration by the nearby Jack-in-the-Box business on Mission Street.

David Franzoia, in an emotional appeal to the council Monday, said the noise from the drive-in's speakers and from the patrons of the all-night restaurant have become unbearable.

He said he's also disgusted by the litter problems at the restaurant site. Franzoia, along with other residents in the Garibaldi Street area behind Mission Street, have petitioned the council for action.

"I can't sleep with the noise at 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning," Franzoia said.

He said he can hear every order over the restaurant's loudspeaker system and the customers add to the din by honking horns, playing car radios and talking loudly.

"If I complain to the people who honk their horns, they throw a beer can or two at my window; so, I keep quiet as a mouse," Franzoia said.

The retired man said he's lucky he can sleep in the daytime, but the other residents who work are not so fortunate.

Trouble

dra Boyd and Donna Collins, will stress English, reading, math and what he calls "survival skills."

"We want students to have at least the minimum skills, so they can hold a job, fill out an application or figure out their taxes," he noted.

Each afternoon, the pupils will participate in class projects or will be counseled by personnel from the Youth Service Bureau and North County Mental Health Service. They also may attend elective classes offered at the school.

In order to join an Opportunity Class, the student and his parents must sign separate contracts. One states that they agree with the general principles of the program. The other lists goals for the student and methods for attaining them.

The student's individual contract may be revised as often as necessary. Once he has improved significantly he will be considered for placement back in his regular class.

Carver said parents will be invited frequently to discuss their child's progress. The student's teacher and principal will make regular reports on the student's advancement toward his goals.

In addition, teachers of regular classes are being asked to observe Opportunity Classes in progress, while substitutes watch their pupils. After seeing the techniques being used, it is hoped the teachers will return to their own classrooms with new ideas.

The district intends to evaluate students in the program with before and after testing. It also plans to measure what effects the absence of a student participating in an Opportunity Class has on his former classmates. A side benefit could be a more productive learning atmosphere when a problem student is absent.

Pupils in Opportunity Classes will be given letter grades to measure their progress, but they won't be classed at any grade level. By failing to specify what grade the students are in, the district hopes to avoid making a pupil feel bad if he remains in an Opportunity Class for three years.

The Opportunity Classes are patterned after programs running in South San Francisco and Fairfield, and at Thornton High School in Daly City.

Noting that the Opportunity Classes are like a Thornton High for younger children, school trustee Grady Hesters admitted that Thornton High's fine example had convinced him of the program's value.

Other trustees echoed his enthusiasm when the topic came up for a board vote.

Two representatives of the Laguna Salada Educational Association (the local teachers' union) tried to dissuade board members from spending $17,000 on Opportunity Classes.

LSEA President Anne Shea said a recent survey of seventh and eighth-grade teachers pointed out that they desire more funding for regular instruction in those grades, not the establishment of another rehabilitative program.

"I wonder if the problem is being addressed here or whether we're working with the results of another problem," she told the board.

Kay Sweeney, a past LSEA president, remarked that teachers would find leaving their regular classes to observe Opportunity Classes disruptive.

"You can send a teacher to a classroom with 12 pupils and all the materials they could ever want available. But what good does it do when the teacher returns to the regular class of 30 and has minimal materials?" Mrs. Sweeney asked.

Despite the arguments, the board unanimously supported the Opportunity Classes.

Hesters explained that the program hopes to get young people back on the right track before high school.

Trustee Curtiss Landers said, "No matter what you do in your regular program, there still are going to be a certain number of unadaptables." He stressed that the Opportunity Classes are giving "lost" students an additional chance.

Carver said it's unusal for elementary schools to offer such alternative programs.

"I suspect it's because the problems of younger children are not considered severe enough," he remarked.

By high school, which the problems have become more noticeable, Carver explained, many programs are available for high school youths. Often, they are funded with state and federal dollars.

He said the Laguna Salada district has wanted to run a program providing special help to intermediate school students for many years. When no outside money could be found, the district finally asked the board of trustees to back the Opportunity Classes on a trial basis.

Carver pointed out that disturbing trends are filtering down to younger children throughout the country among children of all socio-economic backgrounds. For example, he said, elementary school districts are experiencing an increasing number of assaults on teachers.

"We've had three teacher assaults in the past year and a half. They were rare in the past," he noted.

Carver said the district has found it necessary to set up detention areas where students are forced to remain after school for bad behavior during class. In addition, he commented that the district has made its discipline codes more specific because of increasing disciplinary problems.

From September 1976 to March 1977, Laguna Salada officials tallied these statistics among seventh-and eighth-graders in the district: 21 were found fighting, 11 were found drinking or using drugs, 20 were found smoking or in possession of tobacco, 34 showed disrespect for authority, 30 disrupted a classroom, 27 used profanity and 19 attended irregularly or were classed as truants.

Carver said unexcused absences have doubled in the past six years from 1 to 2 percent of the total school population.

"That represents a sizeable amount of ADA (Average Daily Attendance) money we haven't received — about $75,000," he explained.

Whether Opportunity Classes will help to reverse these trneds is something the Laguna Salada district hopes to learn during the next six months.

Carver said, "We feel we are giving a number of students the opportunity to start over, to build self confidence, better communication and study skills and improve motivation, while bringing up their course work to the regular level."

It's a bold idea from a school district that has never been afraid to experiment.

social gatherings at Colma's Town Hall.

Daneluz concedes, however, that the major issue to face the Town Council in the past year was the controversial K-Mart development.

THE K-MART proposal, for a large store and offices, was approved by the council last April. It later was opposed in a suit by a town resident which was just decided in favor of the developer in San Mateo County Superior Court.

The decision cleared the way for the K-Mart developer, E. N. Maisel of Michigan, to come before the town soon for final permits before construction.

"I felt that development of the K- art property was morally and legally appropriate," Daneluz said. "The surrounding sites are commercially zoned and developed."

Furthermore, Daneluz said the more than $100,000 in sales taxes expected from the development "are an added benefit to the K-Mart."

He also mentioned that the costs of sewer lines, street improvements, signals and landscaping will be borne by the developer.

Daneluz said the possibility of future annexations to the town, such as a recent application to annex about 80 acres of unincorporated Colma to the town, "should be put to special election.

"If it became an active issue I would want the vote of the people," he commented.

THE MAYOR said he believes that the absence of property taxes in Colma makes it a desirable place to live.

"If a home comes up for sale it's not on the market for very long," he said.

He's pleased that past development has given the town of 500 a healthy tax base. He said Colma currently has $2 million invested in time certificates and $186,000 in its savings account.

He concluded that he favors development "in general — to a degree."

Lencioni

grandfather, who lived there.

He said he opposed the controversial K-Mart development which just won approval after a year-long court battle between the developer, town and an opposing city resident.

"THE K-MART" is not the store for Colma in that area of El Camino Real," he said. "It would detract from the businesses in the Serra Center."

Lencioni said he's not opposed to business developments, but added he would look closely at their proposed location in Colma.

The candidate ran for Town Council two years ago and lost "only by two votes."

He's a volunteer fireman with the Colma Fire District. He wife is employed by the Colma Police Department.

LENCIONI said if he is elected he would defer to the wishes of the prople in making council decisions.

"You have to get peoople living in the town interested enough to voice opinions," he said.

Similarly, he said, if any annexattion applications come before the Colma Town Council, he would consult the town's residents and "look into both sides," he said.

"I WOULD do my best," he said. "But I can't make too many promises in advance."

Lencioni said he has no preferences on unseating either Mayor Eugene Daneluz or veteran Councilman Raymond Ottoboni, Sr.

"I'm out to beat them both," he said.

"There are quite a few things town residents would like to see happen," he said. "Some of them were promised four years ago, but the council has been waiting until election time."

Lencioni said he feels strongly about the need for a senior citizen program in the city.

HE ALSO voiced concern about beginning some town-sponsored activities for youth.

"We need a summer program for kids in the neighborhood," he said. "We need some placee for them to play. There's nothing for them to do. They play in the streets."

Ottoboni

probation was lifted recently.

But Ottoboni pointed out that a recall effort started against him more than a year ago failed to win support and he said he does not believe his re-election chances will be hurt by the incident.

OTTOBONI has been mayor of Colma four times and he recalls, "The first time I was mayor, there was $14 in the city treasury."

The veteran councilman said it was a "very good thing" that the city got financial support through sales taxes from the Serra Shopping Center.

He pointed out that Colma residents still pay no city taxes.

"IF WE STAY like we are we will never have to have city taxes," he said.

Ottoboni noted that when a proposal to construct a large K-Mart Store and offices first surfaced more than a year ago he was against it "because of the traffic on El Camino Real."

However, he said he changed his mind "when I heard what it would do for Colma."

HE SAID the K-Mart's agreement to add sewer lines, a traffic signal and expectations of adding almost $100,000 in yearly sales tax revenues to the city generated his favorable vote for the project.

The K-Mart recently was given the green light in San Mateo County Superior Court after a court battle had kept the project from starting for almost a year.

Ottoboni said his support of future development proposals "depends on what kind of development comes in. People have got to do something with their property."

BUT THE COUNCILMAN pointed out that Colma has little land not taken up by cemeteries for future development.

"Where we're going now is pretty good," he said of the small city. "We have police and fire services for the people."

"It's always been a cemetery area," he said of the town. "When I got on council 28 years ago there wouldn't have been a rabbit hole built here."

Ottoboni said the council now must focus on the town's sewer and water projects scheduled for completion in a few years.

the residents around the Mission Street location.

- Told the city manager to seek competitive proposals for the upcoming city audit previously done for 12 years by the Richard T. Dwyer Co. The council is not expected to decide the matter until a newly elected council convenes after March 7.
- Said it would re-examine the higher than expected $42,144 bid for improvements to the Community Service Center.

Ramblings

By STEVE KAUFMAN
Commissioner of Publicity

There seems to be no relief for those poor students afflicted with the flu. The absentees at Westmoor still remain at a record high and the number is climbing. Hurry back everyone! I'm beginning to hear my footsteps echo in the halls during passing periods!

The Par Course Opening Ceremonies were great! Over 40 students ran the course after it was dedicated. As hoped, opening honors were conducted by Mayor Al Teglia, School Board President Jane Powell and Jefferson Union High School District Assistant Superintendent Ernie Ribera. A large crowd of spectators came to watch this momentous occasion as the ribbon was cut by Mrs. Powell. She pleaded with all the students ready to run the course not to trample her after she cut the ribbon!

THIS PHYSICAL FITNESS CENTER definitely will be a great addition to the P.E. Department, and one of the best things to come to it. It will be used extensively by students, parents and visiting schools here on field trips. It's officially open, so come out and shape up!

This year has been special in regards to basketball. Not only did the varsity team make the playoffs, they also attained a new scoreboard! Donated by an anonymous person, this board replaces its predecessor, a 20-year-old one that now hangs in the small gym. The board, costing approximately $2,000, is made by Fairplay, and the installation fee was paid for by the school board. It has large numbers, a plexiglass cover protecting it from stray shots and vandals, and an attractive face. It looks great! But why the secrecy? Because if word got out, other department heads would be asking for similar donations. Therefore, Coach Anthony Giammona has honored his (her) request by not publicizing the donor. Whoever it is, I would like to thank them for this most generous gift.

WESTMOOR'S MUSIC marathon is this Friday and Saturday from 4 p.m. to 4 p.m. All the band's various parts will play in shifts — Stage Band, Concert Band and the Dixieland band will play along with duets, combos and soloists. All proceeds will go toward a trip to Disneyland. The doors will open to the public from 4 p.m. to midnight Friday and 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday. Admission is only 25 cents. Come hear some good music!

TWO OF WESTMOOR'S clubs are having various events. First the Y.E.S. (Youth Elderly Service) club is having its meetings after school every Tuesday in room 37 to discuss the patients and to open the communication lines between the elderly and the young. Headed and founded by Evans Maionchi, the group visits the elderly in convalescent homes to just become friends with someone, to make them like family and to give them someone to talk to.

They visit their patients once a week and some can pick up extra school credit by working at least five hours a week. This community service group should be commended for its extreme courage and understanding in a subject that few of us ever think about.

Westmoor's Film Club, headed up by the able leadership of Gary Kellard, is planning a film festival. Students proudly will display their works and all proceeds will go toward new film equipment, an eight millimeter film editor and a tripod students will use in making their films.

WESTMOOR'S RALLY COMMISSIONER has an interesting side hobby — she is a ballerina. Vikki Johnson takes lessons at the San Francisco Ballet School for about 1½ hours a day and then practices for about four hours after that. She has danced in several ballets including the roles of Wicked Queen in "Snow White," a demon in "Hansel and Gretel," has appeared in "Romeo and Juliet" and performed in the Nutcracker Suite, which played last year at the Opera House in San Francisco.

She wants to make ballet a career and dreams of dancing with the New York City Ballet Company or the American Ballet Theater in New York. Her biggest hope is to dance either with the Stuttgart Company in Germany or the Royal Danish Company in Denmark. I wish you luck, Vikki. Keep up the hard work!

THE SOCIAL SCIENCE Department has revised the American Institutions program into two sections — American History and Civics. Civics, the main emphasis in the split, will focus on teaching students how their government works, for many will be given a citizens test, covering the basic fundamentals taught the previous semester. The student can fail the test twice before he must repeat the course.

The American History course covers similar material to the American Institutions program existing now, but without the civics part. It will cover the period of American Independence to the present and some of the problems we face. Both courses will be a semester long, totalling one year, which is the time American Institutions runs. By 1980 this new course will be required.

BEST OF LUCK to senior Tami Stuckert. She is participating in the Lions Club's speech program and contest on energy and what we as young people can do to try and ease the situation in the future. She writes her speeches with the help of the speech teacher and then competes in various levels of competition.

WE ARE IN the middle of Spirit Week and I found out something that proves how closely united the school is with its parents. Westmoor's own PTA, to further the spirit of this week, is donating $50 to the class that wins Spirit Week and $25 to the class that comes in second. This truly shows how much the PTA cares about the happenings in the school and I would personally like to thank them for this kind and generous donation.

Monday was officially titled "Stay Home and Relax Day." The number of people participating in this day was astounding and is also a show of Westmoor's spirit. Yesterday was Famous People Day and the school was graced by the appearances of Darth Vader, Farrah Fawcett-Majors, Rocky and numerous other celebrities. Today is 60's Revival Day, in which students will relive life in the 60's. Although we tried, we could not book the Beatles for a live appearance so we had to settle with just playing their records!

Tomorrow will be Roaring 20's and Gangster Day, complete with "Speakeasy" and 20's music. It should be one of the most interesting days of the year. Friday will be Individual Class Theme Day, in which the various classes will pick their own day and dress up accordingly. I'll let you know who wins this fantastic and zany week!

SPORTS — Practice has started by the boys' swim team. Under the coaching of Jim Ahern and Manager Terry Kraemer, these Wet Rams will tackle some tough competition this year. Best of luck this season.

As mentioned earlier, the varsity basketball team is preparing for the playoffs. For one of the tallest and strongest teams ever, rebounding has been one of the keys to their success. Senior Mark Navarro, junior Sheldon Scott and sophomore Troy Williams have done most of this superb work.

Junior guards Tony Limutau and Ken Baptista have been able to penetrate opponents' defense to become terrors of the boards, as well as high scorers.

Senior Keith Harband is also one of the Rams' outstanding players. He is one of the league's top scoring players and averages nearly 15 points per game. He is also the NPL's top defensive player.

Pack 296 Cubs Win For Novelty Cakes

A Father-Son Cake Bake Auction was on the agenda for the Cub Scout Pack 296 January Pack Nite recently at Buri-Buri School in South San Francisco. Approximately 30 cakes shaped like cars, boats, ships and animals were available to the cake fancier. A gumball machine cake and treasure chest cake also added to the variety. Prior to the auction judges Grace Gordon, Larry Abbott and Sue Lallas judged the cakes and gave the following first, second and third place awards: Best looking, Brian Vina, Mike S'Dao, Vincent Lopiccolo; most original, Kevin Fanucchi, Mike Yasko, Mark Cavallero; funniest, Marc Teglia, Mark Woodman and Mike McAuliffe.

Steven Seifert was inducted into the pack as a Bobcat. The Bear Ceremony was performed for Kevin Fanucchi and Greg Pruitt. A Gold Arrow was earned by Kevin Fanucchi and a Silver Arrow by Chris Beaudry.

One-year pins were presented to Kurt Howerton and Billy Holt. A two-year pin went to Joey Terron and Jason Peruzzi and Sue Peruzzi received three-year pins.

It was announced that Todd Howerton will be presented his Eagle Scout Award at an Eagle Court Of Honor in February. He continues as a den chief for the pack.

Single Parent 'Skills Clinic' At Peninsula

The practical aspects of running a one-parent home will be explored during a "Skills Clinic" program sponsored by the Single Parents of San Mateo County Feb. 21 from 7 to 9 p.m.

Information on who needs life insurance and is the childcare person covered by your insurance policy in case she gets hurt in a home, will be given. The second part of the evening will be devoted to new information on income tax laws that may affect a single parent in 1978.

Ray Stewart, insurance broker, and Mike Lennon, an accountant, will be the resource persons. The program will be at 1811 Trousdale Drive, Burlingame, and is open to all widowed, divorced or never-married single parents with or without custody of their children. There is no charge for the program and childcare is available at low cost.

For further information on this and other single parent programs, call Maria Nieri at 697-4061, ext. 214.

Oldest Local Cub Pack Celebrates

Cub Scout Pack 9 of Sharp Park School in Pacifica will celebrate its 40th anniversary Feb. 22.

Pack 9, better known as the Big 9, is planning a special birthday dinner in honor of the occasion. Many civic leaders and scouting executives have been invited. John Polianos, Cubmaster of the pack, says that invitations have also been extended to some of the original Cub Scouts of the pack and to Mrs. Grace McCarthy, former mayor of Pacifica and one of the earliest den mothers of the pack.

February is the month scouting celebrates its birthday and this year Cub Scouting is 48 years old. The 40 continuous years of Pack 9 makes it the oldest continuous pack in San Mateo County and one of the oldest continuous packs in the country.

Assessor's Race Heats Up as Woman Declares

By RICK SULLIVAN

A woman who last week moved from her home in Tahoe City to a Redwood City apartment became the first female Friday to announce her candidacy for county assessor.

County Clerk Marvin Church said Mrs. LuCille Sanders moved to this county just in time to qualify for a positon on the June 6 ballot. Church said state law provides that a candidate for elective office must reside in the jurisdiction in which she seeks election at least 30 days before filing nominations papers.

"If she moved into this county when she says," commented Church, "then she has made the requirement by one day."

The filing deadline for county offices is March 10.

The 49-year-old Mrs. Sanders, a former appraiser in the San Mateo County Assessor's Office, said at a press conference that she returned to this county to bring more coordination and efficiency to the office of assessor."

She worked under current Assessor Jack Estes from 1973 to 1976, but quit she said because "the conditions and methods they employed in the office were intolerable."

Estes has announced he will not run for re-election. Two of his staff members, Tom Collins and Ronald Giannini, have declared their intention to seek the $40,622 per year position.

"To elect the two men from the assessor's office," Mrs. Sanders said, "would be to continue the same old policies of the office. There will be no change for the taxpayers."

"I want to be able to reorganize that office to make it more efficient. I want to put the right people in the right positions, which is not the situation today," she stated.

Mrs. Sanders also promised to reappraise all residential property in one year and then not appraise it again for another two years. She said she believed this could be accomplished with no additional staff.

Mrs. Sanders said she has been a resident of the county most of her life. She is a graduate of Burlingame High School and the College of San Mateo. She has resided in Menlo Park and Atherton.

She said two days ago she moved from Tahoe City to an apartment on Grand Avenue in Redwood City.

Mrs. Sanders explained that when she left the assessor's office she and her husband could no longer afford to live in this county, so she moved to Tahoe City 15 months ago.

"The taxes in this county are unbearable; we had to find a place where we could afford to live," she stated.

Scouts Honor George Swain

The Annual Recognition Dinner of the San Mateo County Council, Boy Scouts of America, was held at the Villa Hotel in San Mateo Jan. 27.

One of the highlights of the dinner was the presentation of the Silver Beaver Award, presented by the San Mateo Council through action of the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America, for distinguished service to youth.

One of the five recipients of this award was George R. Swain of the North County. Swain was a Scout in Texas as a youngster but became very actively involed when his son became a Scout. He has served as a member of the committee for Cub Pack 115 in San Francisco and Pack 84 in Daly City.

He was also a member of the committee and later an assistant scoutmaster of Troop 84, Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, in Daly City. He was a unit commissioner, an assistant district commissioner, the district training chairman, the district scouting vice-chairman and the district chairman for the Northern District, which covers the five northern cities of San Mateo County.

On the council level, he served as a council camporee co-chairman, was one of the first coach-counselors on the Leadership Development Committee of the new Improved Scouting Program, and presently serves as the lodge advisor for Pomponio Lodge — Order of the Arrow, an Honor Campers Society.

He has received the Scouters Trainers Award, the Commissioners Arrowhead Award, the Commissioners key, the District Award of Merit and holds the Vigil Honor in the Order of the Arrow and Woodbadge National Training.

Swain resides in Broadmoor Village with wife Dolores, daughter Debbie (a First Class Girl Scout) and son Ron (an Eagle Scout of San Mateo County Council).

NELL NORTON

Good morning, good cooks.

Cooking and serving a dish that has won a prize in a national contest has built-in advantages. It's bound to be good, after all, it won a prize and it's fancy enough to be served on special occasions.

This steak dish, which won a prize in the National Beef Cook-Off, fits into just this category.

VERMILLION-DOLLAR BEEF STEAKS

2 to 2½ pounds beef round steak, cut 3/4 inch thick
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
¼ teaspon ground cumin
¼ teaspoon ground thyme
2 tablespoons flour
¼ cup mayonnaise
3 cloves garlic, halved
½ cup red cooking wine
1 tablespoon instant mixed vegetable flakes
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
1 cup cooked rice
¼ cup mayonaise
2 tablespoons chopped green onion tops
2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley
6 tomato slices (¼ inch thick)
6 pepper rings (¼ inch thick)
6 onion slices (¼ inch thick)
6 slices of cheese (4 inches square)

Trim the steak and cut into six equal parts, removing bone if present. Pound each piece into a thin cutlet. Combine the one and one-half teaspoons salt, fourth teaspoon each pepper, cumin and thyme and rub into meat. Lightly dredge in the two tablespoons flour. Place fourth cup mayonnaise in large frying pan, add three cloves garlic, halved and cook slowly until cloves are lightly browned; discard garlic cloves.

Add meat to mayonnaise in frying-pan and cook slowly until lightly browned on both sides. Add half cup red wine, one tablespoon each vegetable flakes and minced onion; cover tightly, reduce heat and simmer 45 minutes, turning steaks occasionally. (If necessary, add water to retain about ¾ cup cooking liquid at all times.) Mix the cup cooked rice with fourth cup mayonnaise, two tablespoons each green onion tops and parsley.

Top each piece of steak with a slice of tomato. Place pepper rings on tomato slices and spoon rice mixture into pepper rings. Top each steak with onion slice. Cover tightly and continue cooking slowly another 45 to 50 minutes, until meat is tender. Top each steak with a slice of cheese and place under broiler 1 or 2 minutes, just until cheese begins to melt. Place steaks on serving platter. Garnish as desired. 6 servings.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD ★ JOHNSON

Memorable Dining At New San Remo

The NEW SAN REMO in San Francisco's North Beach district is a visual feast for nostalgia buffs as well as a memorable dining treat for lovers of fine Italian and continental cuisine. Restored to its original 1906 Victorian splendor, the New San Remo features a half-million dollars worth of hand-crafted appointments such as embossed metal ceilings with overhead paddle fans, white tile floors and comfortable cane bottom chairs.....''Gloria and the Gents,'' a fast-paced new musical revue starring GLORIA STOCKTON, has just opened at the elegant new LEHR'S CABARET in San Francisco. Special reduced-priced preview performances are scheduled at 9 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays throughout February. Enjoy dinner first in the adjoining LEHR'S GREENHOUSE Garden Restaurant.....The special hors d'oeuvres offered every Monday and Tuesday at BEARDSLEY'S, Burlingame, are prepared by VAL, the popular headwaiter, who enjoys creating new varieties.....Pizzas, small, medium and extra large (14 inches), are prepared in many different combinations to eat in or to take out at ROMANO'S Italian and Seafood restaurant in Rockaway Beach. And if you don't see your favorite combination on the menu, ask to have it prepared specially . . . RICHARD is at it again! Decorating SCOTTY CAMPBELL'S restaurant, that is. If you think the Valentine's Day theme was beautiful, wait until you see what he is prepareing for the Washington's Birthday weekend.

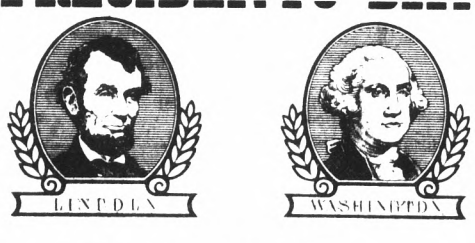

MILES SMILES

Sarah Miles, star of the new stage show, ''Smiles is Me,'' relaxes at a press conference at the elegant new Rosebud's English Pub in San Francisco, hosted by Bill Graham and the American Conservatory Theater.

Weight Determines Price of Dinner

Your appetite determines the tab at PHIL LEHR'S unique Pay-By-Gram Steakery, on the lower level of the San Francisco Hilton Tower. Extra-choice steaks are cut to your exact order — any size — and weighed on a butcher's scale. The weight in grams (or ounces) determines the price of your dinner.....All during the month of February, the RODEWAY INN, South San Francisco, is featuring a ''two for one'' coupon offer on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. Buy one of the special dinners and receive the second one without cost to you. The coupon must be presented, and the lowest priced meal is free. This is General Manager JIM RAINE'S way of reintroducing the dinners to Bay Area residents and their guests.....Rich Lewis, friendly bartender at CAPTAIN CHARLES, a seafood specialty restaurant in Rockaway Beach, has concocted a new drink called the Captain Charles. Drop by and order up... The BAYHILL LOUNGE serves lunch from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. every Monday through Friday. Among the luncheon specials are Link Pork Sausages and Chicken Fried Steak.....''Business has realy increased since opening seven days a week,'' said DARIO, owner of A GUY FROM ITALY. His customers realy like having that extra day to order Italian food and pizzas. Home delivery.

PRESIDENTS' DAY

Zesty Mexican Specialty Popular

Steak Picado is one of the ''Especialidades de la Casa'' at LA PINATA Mexican restaurant in downtown Burlingame. The Mexican specialty is broiled beef, thinly sliced sirloin of beef, marinated in fresh lime juice and herbs, grilled and garnished with refried beans and Mexican rice.....YOLANDA'S, located at the far end of the San Francisco Produce Terminal, can actually be seen from the freeway (101). Helpings are ample, and prices are well within the budget of all. Fruits and vegetables are fresh from the market. Live or cooked Maine lobster to go. A pool table is available upstairs for friendly get-togethers, plus a large banquet hall.....Big blueprint plans for BARNEY'S and the SOUTH TAHOE NUGGET are in the offing for both the interior and exterior of the popular South Lake Tahoe casinos. ''Bright Lights'' will keep you posted when the action gets under way. Incidentally, anyone cashing a pay check here is entitled to spin the wheel at South Tahoe Nugget. You might even double its amount.....Being an Oyster Stew fanatic, this columnist enjoys it frequently at VINCE'S ITALIAN and SEAFOOD restaurant, the ''Fisherman's Wharf of the Peninsula.'' EDDIE PISANI, the parking lot tycoon, recommends the Vince's Special here. Ample parking, but an early arrival for dinner is suggested.

STROLLING TROUBADOR

Singing guitarist Tomas Rivera strolls through the dining room of The Widow in San Francisco entertaining dinner patrons with lively Latin American songs.

Mendoza In D.C. Pharmacy

Ken Mendoza, a University of the Pacific School of Pharmacy student, has been studying the community pharmacy business firsthand this semester through a unique internship program that is the largest in the world.

Mendoza is working full-time at Pharmaceutical Service in Daly City under the direction of Rusty Rhoades and Tim Nico, adjunct professors at UOP.

A total of 58 future pharmacists at Pacific are spending this semester in the practical application of classroom learning at pharmacies in California and Hawaii.

Included in the duties are prescription practice, learning the operational procedures of a pharmacy and working with physicians and the public. The students receive both remuneration and units toward graduation while in this cooperative work period. They have a manual to follow in performing assignments in specific areas of pharmacy.

The Regent

By JULIE SMITH
Commissioner of Publicity

It is now that time of year when seniors are waiting to see if they have been selected to receive any scholarships or awards. Four students from Serramonte have received the Bank of America plaque award for various departments in the school. The four departments are fine arts, liberal arts, math and science and vocational.

FINE ARTS is concerned with choir, drama and music. The winner is Loretta McNeil. Liberal Arts deals with language and history. Mylene Schwimmer received this award. The Math/Science award went to Eric Herzog and the Vocational award winner is Sarah Lai, who is planning to go into business.

On Jan. 30 Yolanda Newton gave herself an honor! Yolanda broke the county (both boys and girls) record for rebounds in basketball. Yolanda ended the game with 29 rebounds. The record was 23. Congratulations to Yolanda.

On Feb. 8 the girls basketball team was 9-2, one game out of first place. They beat Westmoor twice, the first time in many years. Serramonte was not one of the favorites this year, but the girls are proving to be a big surprise to everyone. The girls will be in the playoffs, one more step before the championship. Keep up the good works, girls!

THE BOYS' basketball team isn't doing too badly, either. On Feb. 8 they were 12-0. They are in the playoffs too and their ultimate goal is to go all the way this year.

Congratulations to Serramonte's JV soccer team for winning the NPL championship for the second consecutive year and the past four out of five years.

Classes For Kids

Daly City's Recreation Department is offering two classes, Kindergym and Creative Dramatics, for pre school youngsters.

Kindergym, for children 3-5 years old, is taught by Rosalie Lindsey. Six-week sessions at the Westlake Community Center, 145 Lake Merced Blvd., will be Fridays from 10-10:45 a.m. and 11-11:45 a.m., beginning Feb. 24. Registration deadline is Feb. 22.

Creative Dramatics, also for pre-schoolers 3-5 years old, is taught by Joan Marvier. The six-week sessions at the Westlake Park Clubhouse, 149 Lake Merced Blvd., will be Mondays from 9:30-10:30 a.m., 11-noon and 12:30-1:30 p.m. Classes begin Feb. 27, and registration deadline is Feb. 23.

Advanced registration is required, as fees will not be taken at the door. To register, send name, address, daytime telephone number and correct fee to the Recreation Department, 134 Hillside Blvd., Daly City 94104.

Fee for Kindergym is $7 for Daly City residents and $10.50 for non-residents; for Creative Dramatics, it is $3 for residents and $4.60 for non-residents.

Tennis Courses Planned

Free tennis lessons are being offered to Daly City residents 16 years and younger. Fifty-minute classes will be every Thursday from Feb. 16 through March 16.

This first five-week session is divided according to ages: 2:30-3:30 p.m. 6-9 years, 3:30-4:30 p.m. 10-13 years, 4:30-5:30 p.m. 14-16 years.

The second session will run six weeks, March 30 through May 6. Classes in session two will be based on ability. Times will be announced.

All classes are limited to 12 students taken on a first come first served basis. Students must provide their own tennis racket and tennis shoes.

Phil Villalobos, a Riordan senior, will be the instructor. He has been a strong varsity player for both Westmoor and Riordan high schools, and is an experienced tournament player.

Registration will be open through the second class meeting. For details, call Maureen Kennedy, Daly City Recreation and Parks Department, 878-8565 from 6-9 p.m. Monday through Friday.

A winter barbecue recently was served to members of the Daly City Dolphin Aquatics swim team at Westmoor Park Clubhouse by Dolphin Aquatics Club President Terry DeMartini (right) and chef Norm Foge. Dolphins are presently trying to obtain sponsors to donate amounts equal to laps they will swim during the Second Annual Daly City Dolphathon, March 3, from 5 to 8 p.m. at Westmoor Pool. The Dolphathon, as well as the team itself, is co-sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

Memberships Are Clarified

Clarification of membership requirements for the Daly City Dolphins Aquatics Club was recently made by vote of the Daly City Dolphins Parents Club, according to Club President Terry DeMartini.

The accepted resolution reads, "Membership is open to all children who reside within the Jefferson Elementary School District area, the Jefferson Union High School District area, or all those who have a Daly City address. Ten percent of the club's roster may live outside the above areas."

Team try-outs are held each weekday, Monday through Friday, at 5 p.m. at Westmoor Pool with qualification being two laps of the pool using any stroke.

Presently the team is under-enrolled and all area youngsters, aged 6 to 18, boys and girls, can try out, according to Swim Coach Chip Zimmerman.

The pool phone number is 992-4190 for more information. The Daly City Dolphins are co-sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

For the girls, the 10 and under, Annette Segol tied for seventh in the 50-yard backstroke and took seventh in the 100-yard freestyle.

Other Daly City Dolphins participating included Matthew Foge, Maureen Kilkeary, Wilfred Rose, Tad Brunell and Tim Carey. The Daly City Dolphins hold daily, Monday through Friday, try-outs at the Westmoor Pool, Daly City, at 5 p.m. for all ages.

Dolph-a-Thon Signup Sheets

Dolph-a-Thon sponsor signup sheets have recently been distributed to the team members of the Daly City Dolphins Aquatics Club who are attempting to obtain backers for their swimming marathon.

The Dolph-a-Thon is set for Friday, March 3, from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Westmoor Pool, 131 Westmoor Ave., Daly City.

Minimum lap sponsorship is one cent per lap, no maximum amount per swimmer, but swimmers are limited to 200 laps or two hours swimming, whichever comes first.

The Dolph-a-Thon is open to the public and there is no door entry fee.

The Daly City Dolphins are co-sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

Basketball Has Changed So Much

It is ironic that basketball, our youngest game, also has been through the most change. Aside from the size and shape of the ball, the semblance of a basket through which the ball is supposed to be thrown and the fact that the game is still played in underwear, the game as James Naismith founded it in 1891 would hardly be recognized if it could somehow was transported in time to an NBA court.

In the beginning, there were only 13 rules which governed play. They follow:

• The ball may be thrown in any direction with one or both hands.

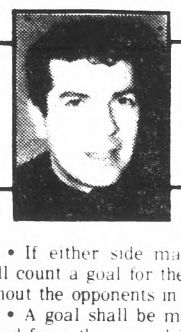

• The ball may be batted in any direction with one or both hands (never with the fist).

• A player cannot run with the ball. The player must throw it from the spot on which he catches it, allowance to be made for a man who catches the ball when running at a good speed if he tries to stop.

• The ball must be held in or between the hands. The arms or body must not be used for holding it.

• No shouldering, holding, pushing, tripping or striking in any way the person of an opponent shall be allowed; the first infringement of this rule by any player should count as a foul, the second shall disqualify him until the next goal is made, or, if there was evidence to injure the person, for the whole of the game, no substitute allowed (Pacini's note: This might not be a bad way to put a stop to current NBA violence.)

• A foul is striking at the ball with the fist, violation of rule 4, 5, and such as described in rule 6.

Le Pacini

• If either side makes three consecutive fouls, it shall count a goal for the opponents (consecutive means without the opponents in the meantime making a foul.)

• A goal shall be made when the ball is thrown or batted from the ground into the basket and stays there, providing those defending the goal do not touch or disturb the goal. If the ball rests on the edge and the opponent moves the basket, it shall count as a goal.

• When the ball goes out of bounds, it shall be thrown onto the field of play by the person first touching it. In the case of a dispute, the umpire shall throw it straight onto the field. The thrower-in is allowed five seconds; if he holds it any longer, it shall go to the opponent. If any side persists in delaying the game, the umpire shall call a foul on that side.

• The umpire shall be judge of the men and shall note the fouls and notify the referee when three consecutive fouls have been made. He shall have the power to disqualify men according to rule 6.

• The referee shall be judge of the ball and shall decide when the ball is in play, in bounds, to which it belongs and shall keep time. He shall decide when a goal has been made and keep account of the goals with any other duties that are usually performed by a referee.

• The time shall be two 15-minute halves, with five minutes' rest between.

• The side making the most goals in that time shall be declared the winner. In the case of a draw, the game may, by agreement of the captains, be continued until another goal is made.

JACK DOWNEY, the semi-retired fight referee (he still refs San Quentin cards and trains referees), has always been able to produce charming, gem-like vignettes on the fight game as he knew it. From a recent letter:

"Joe 'King' Leopold was a fight time-keeper from Oakland. He probably worked more fights with more fighters, referees, commissions, promoters, fight fans, in more arenas, in more cities than any other time-keeper I know of.

"He left our minimal time for eternity several years ago. But not without leaving memories of a nice guy who was always smiling and giving gems of wisdom to everyone in the fight game, a rare attribute, indeed.

"KING LEOPOLD had a watch repair shop. Often he would wear as many as three watches on each wrist. He would peddle these watches sometimes before the fights.

"I remember Frankie Carter (Current), a Sicilian, dickering with 'King' Leopold, a Jew, about the price of a watch many times. It was worth the price of admission.

"Frankie Carter used to buy watches for friends. Right now I'm wearing one Frankie bought in Italy for me several years ago.

"WHEN I THINK of it, it was probably worth all the long hours of training and trading punches to have the wonderful memories and meet the wonderful friends I have throughout my boxing career.

"I just came back from a long walk by myself, but I really wasn't alone. I had plenty of company with the ghosts of the past."

I READ where Richard Nixon approves of George Allen as new head coach of the Rams.

That's like the pot calling the kettle white.

AND NOW, the answers to last week's quiz on codified versions of the nicknames of NFL teams:

Half bovine, half man — Cowboys; Lubricators — Oilers; Fundamental rules — Cardinals; shoplifters — Steelers; Equine rodeo participants — Broncos; 747's — Jets; Six-shooters—Colts; $1 for corn—Buccaneers; Fish arms for a girl's toys — Dolphins; Loaders — Packers; 6 rulers — Vikings (Explanation: You must keep in mind that the Roman numeral for six is VI); Wise sunbathers — Browns; Foolish sunbathers — Redskins; Protected species — Eagles; Washington's Fischer goes wild — Patriots (Explanation: Washington's Fischer refers to Redskin defensive back Pat Fischer, who in this case, riots.

talcons; Streakers — Bears; Ewe mate — Rams; I.O.U.'s — Bills) Credit card users — Chargers; Midnight snackers — Raiders; Indian leaders — Chiefs; Peter and Paul — Saints; Uncle's spouse in the Army — Giants (Explanation: G.I. Aunt); Type of tiger — Bengals; Marine bird — Seahawks.

AS THE SPORTING NEWS recently pointed out, Willie McCovey is one of baseball history's most amazing 39-year-olds.

McCovey's participation in 141 games as a 39-year-old last year is surpassed in history only by Luke Appling's 149, Al Kaline's 147 and Rabbit Maranville's 145.

Only Hank Aaron (40) and Cy Williams (30) ever hit more home runs at age 39 than Willie's 28.

Only Williams (98) and Aaron (96) ever bettered McCovey's 86 RBI.

And Willie has the ninth-ranking batting average and total hits of all 39-year-olds, and hit the eighth greatest total of doubles.

Boys B-ball Action

In the Daly City Boys' Basketball Eighth Grade Western Division, the Indians clipped the Jets 47-43 with some sharp shooting by Curtis Alexander and Regino Pagmanua who scored 14 and nine points respectively for the Indians.

Arnell Arcayena netted 13 for the Jets.

The Bucs trampled the Warriors 36-17 as Daryl Hamilton connected for 13 along with nine Buc points for Derrick Jackson. High for the Warriors was Edgar Jimenez with eight.

The Holy Angels "Rock" posted a victory due to an O.L.M. forfeit.

The Broncos galloped past the Avengers 26-13, as Mike Erle and Rob Dotson corraled 11 and 10 points for the Broncos. Doing a good job for the Avengers was Peter Salvatin with eight points.

In other action, the Blues swamped O.L.M. 33-12. Tony Hohnson bagged 11 while Phil Frenkel chipped in nine for the Blues. Joe Grealish hit for six.

In the Third Grade Western, P.A.L. came up with the short end as L.B.Y.A. defeated them 14-8. Scott Mash scored eight while Mark Prader pointed two for L.B.Y.A. Matt Grech hit for four points for P.A.L. II.

Harold DeGuzman got the hothand in the fourth quarter as he banked in two buckets which accounted for the Warriors 4-0 victory over the Globetrotters. Rounding out the day, the Supersonics took a forfeit from the Blues.

In the Fourth Grade North the Bullets roasted the Falcons 22-5 as Perrin Fojzs scored 10 along with six by Dean Perzreh for the Bullets. Norberto Gonzales winged in three Falcon points.

O.L.M. pounded the Broncos 30-5 with Martin Dioli collecting 12 markers for O.L.M. as George Salitt posted all the Broncos' five points.

The Scots humbled Holy Angels 24-8 behind the good shooting of Cordell Haines seven points and Jon Yarnold five points.

The S.A.L. Superstars were upset by O the red hot O.L.M., who were led by the six points of Santa Domingo as they won 9-2.

While she was shopping at Lucky, we invited Mrs. Joann Tucker to make a shopper's comparison test for us, and she agreed. Using her very own shopping list of items she personally selected, she purchased groceries at Lucky for a total of $53.35. Using her same shopping list, she then purchased the same or comparable items at a nearby supermarket. This time, the same or comparable items cost her $61.28. Mrs. Tucker spent $7.93 less at Lucky!

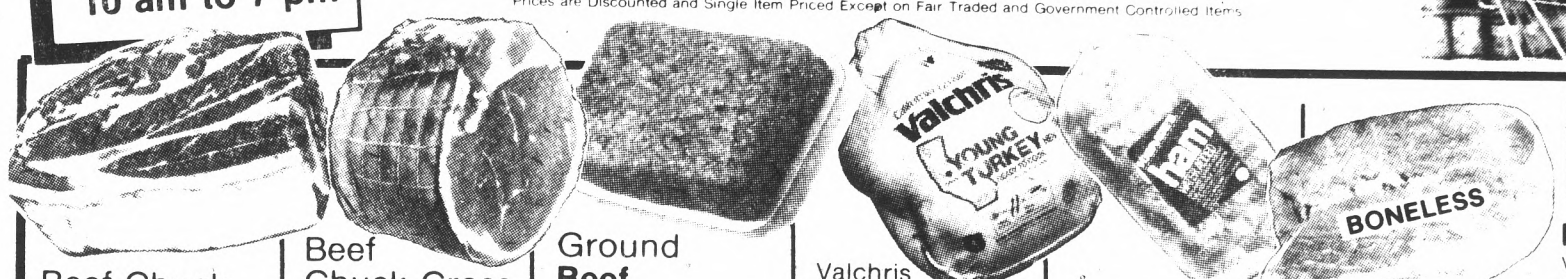

Obviously, the amount of savings varies with each individual shopping list . . . but the important thing is that Lucky is committed to low everyday discount prices . . . not just a few prizes.

Mrs. Joann Tucker's shopping comparison test was notarized by a licensed Notary Public on January 30, 1978.

Prices effective Wednesday, February 15th thru Tuesday, February 21, 1978.

Recently a Gallup Poll Survey of Youth reported that 49 percent of all teens approved of trial marriage, while 45 percent are opposed. Interestingly enough, Roman Catholics favor trial marriage by a 54 to 40 percent margin, while young Protestants are opposed to the concept by a margin of 52 percent to 42 percent.

Teenagers whose parents are married are even split on the trial marriage issue. Among youngsters whose parents are divorced, however, only 35 percent oppose trial marriages while 56 percent are definitely in favor of them.

OF THE 1,087 teenagers who participated in the survey during the period that extended from October 17 to 30, 1977, 84 percent stated that they expect to be married some day. Ten percent stated that they think they will stay single all of their lives. The remaining six percent have not made up their minds about marriage.

As reported, 94 percent of those who expect to marry some day would like children. When asked how many children they would like, 52 percent of the teenagers, regardless of sex, answered two children. However, more girls than boys stated a desire for four or more children.

Another question sought to determine what age or ages the teens regard as the most ideal for marriage. While their opinions vary widely, both boys and girls agree that the median age for men to marry is 23 years, while 21 years is the age for women. It must be noted, however, that no single year was selected by more than 20 percent of the teenagers.

D.C. Teens Plan March 4 Snow Trip

The Daly City Junior Teen Clubs — Eastside, Telstars, Bayshore and Westlake — sponsored by the Recreation Department, will have a trip to the snow March 4. A full day of activities including tobogganing and snow games is planned at Leland Meadows Snow Play Area near Strawberry, east of Sonora in the Dodge Ridge area. The facility offers supervised toboggan runs, saucer slides, tube runs, snow play areas and a lodge.

Chartered buses will leave Daly City at 5 a.m. and return at approximately 9 p.m. Bayshore and Eastside Teens will leave from the War Memorial Community Center; transportation for the Telstars will leave from Westmoor Park Clubhouse, and Westlake will leave from the Westlake Community Center.

Cost for members is $14 and guests $16 and includes bus transportation, trip insurance, admission and equipment rental. Teen Club members may obtain permisson slips from advisors at teen activities or from the Recreation Department at 134 Hillside Blvd.

Members will have priority, but must sign up by returning parent permission slip and money to teen advisors or the Recreation Office on or before 5 p.m. Feb. 24. Guests may sign up on a first come-first served basis. Deadline for all signups is Feb. 28 at 5 p.m.

For further information, contact the Recreation Office, 134 Hillside Blvd., 992-5356.

Merchants Set Meet

The regular meeting of the Daly City Mission Merchants Association will be Feb. 23 at House of Parties, 22 Hillcrest, Daly City. The program will feature candidates for City Council of Daly City.

Each candidate will give a three-minute talk followed by a questions and answer session. The meeting is a luncheon starting at 12:15 p.m. Everyone is welcome. For further information phone 755-6700.

Sp. 4 Waite In Personne!

Specialist 4 Timothy H. Waite, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Waite, 4217 Orchardview, Westlake, recently was assigned as a personnel administrative specialist with the Eighth U.S. Army in Seoul, Korea. He entered the Army in 1976.

Rabies Clinics In Millbrae, D.C. Soon

Four low-cost rabies clinics, sponsored by local veterinarians and the county Department of Health and Welfare, will be Feb. 26.

Costs for the shots, available to both dogs and cats, is $3. They will be given from 1 to 3 p.m. at Westlake Recreation Center, 145 Lake Merced Blvd., Daly City, and at Lincoln Park Recreation Center, 477 Lincoln Circle, Millbrae.

Pet owners are reminded that the deadline for obtaining dog licenses is March 1 and proof of rabies shots is required by most cities in San Mateo County.

To properly protect a pet, the department suggests that all dogs four months and older be vaccinated and that the shots be repeated every two years.
